Today's Epistle Reading:

Luke the Evangelist

St. Paul's Letter to the Colossians 4:5-11, 14-18

Brethren, conduct yourselves wisely toward outsiders, making the most of the time. Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer every one. Tychicos will tell you all about my affairs; he is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord. I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts, and with him Onesimos, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of yourselves. They will tell you of everything that has taken place. Aristarchos my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received instructions if he comes to you, receive him), and Jesus who is called Justos. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. Luke the beloved physician and Demas greet you. Give my greetings to the brethren at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house. And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea. And say to Archippos, "See that you fulfill the ministry which you have received in the Lord." I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my fetters. Grace be with you. Amen.

Today's Gospile Reading:

Luke the Evangelist

The Gospel According to Luke 10:16-21

The Lord said to his disciples, "He who hears you hears me, and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will."

to provide a solid Orthodox Education in a safe environment.*

Youth Sermons will be held the first Sunday of each month "after" Divine Liturgy. All Students will remain in church, no class format on those Sundays.

Change ~ #2

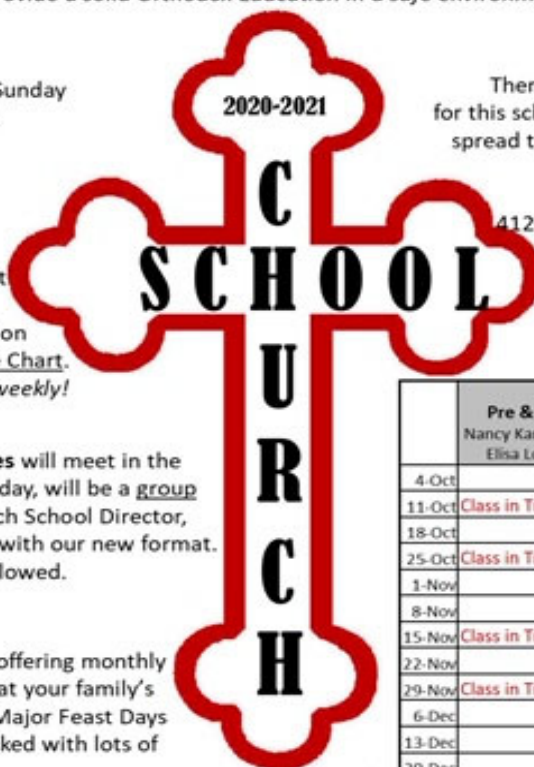

Pre&K Class and Jr&Sr High will meet on alternating Sundays in the large trailer classroom after Holy Communion in order to social distance better. See Chart.
Items will be sanitized weekly!

Change ~ #3

1&2 grades / 3&4 grades / 5&6 grades will meet in the hall after Holy Communion. This Sunday, will be a group Kick Off / Meet-n-Greet and our Church School Director, Anna Berg, will address any concerns with our new format. Social distancing guidelines will be followed.

Change ~ #4

Since class time is limited, we will be offering monthly pre-recorded sessions to be watched at your family's leisure. The recordings will focus on Major Feast Days and lives of the Saints that will be packed with lots of information about our faith.

Beloved All Saints Family,

Our Youth ministries team has been hard at work trying to bring back some sort of normalcy to the idea and concept of Sunday School at All Saints. Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing our plan moving forward.

Once a month, the first Sunday of each month, I will be offering a Youth Sermon in lieu of the main sermon. This message will be offered at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

For those who are willing to be at church in-person and those who still need some time before they return, this offering is available to you all. The sermon will be given live and will also be broadcast as part of our weekly live streaming.

Families that are not coming in-person and who have lost interest joining us online... I send this plea to you... the world around us gives us every excuse to not be attentive to our sacred and divine services. Maybe you were into it at first and lost your concentration over the summer. Please do not allow more time to go by without your personal connection to the church and to our All Saints parish. Make sure that Christ is part of your child's weekly routine.

We are and will be doing our best to minister to and connect with all of our families. Please do your part in being attentive to these offerings.

Wishing you all of God's blessings, love and protection at this time!

Rev. Fr. George F Athanasiou
